COMPANY’S RESPONSIBILITIES

Whilst “The Organisation” recognises its duties and responsibilities to all its workers, our Agency Workers are placed with client businesses to carry out work. Once placed in a client's workplace, our Agency Workers are under the direct control and supervision of that client.

As “The Organisation” is not in control of these workplaces and undertakings in which our Agency Workers are placed, the day to day responsibility for Health and Safety in the workplace lies with the client.

Directors, Senior, Middle and First Line Managers carry the prime responsibility for safe operations and activities within their control. This will be achieved with the assistance and guidance of the person responsible for providing competent advice.

The company shall provide adequate and competent supervision to those company activities which involve identified risks. When any “The Organisation” worker visits or works at a Client site such supervision shall be the responsibility of the Client.

Workers will be adequately trained, to the extent that their job function demands it, in health and safety at work, safe working practices and related topics.
